Los Angeles, CA (April 4, 2016) – After a wildly successful career on stage and screen, actress/entertainer Patty Weaver, has accessed a new avenue of creative expression.

Weaver enjoyed extraordinary success as an actress for over three decades on daytime television, starring on Days of Our Lives and The Young and The Restless. She has also taken the stage as a singer and opened for many Hollywood legends. After briefly retreating from the entertainment world, she proudly reemerges with a stunning collection of modern works at her very first gallery event on Saturday, April 30, 2016.

Noted art consultant and founder of The Armory Show, NYC, Paul Morris describes her work as a “broad spectrum of imaginary dreamscapes that owe their entire appearance to the artist’s personal imagination. Works are dense with color as light plays an important part of her visionary worlds.”

“I did not set out to be a painter, but after a lifetime in the fictionalized scenery of the film industry, I could not help but continue in some way to live in and express my dreams,” says Patty.

The collection is available for viewing and acquisition at Nu Space, 7122 Beverly Blvd., Los Angeles, 90036, from 5:00-9:00pm. Capacity will be limited; RSVP is a must by April 23 at pw01.eventbrite.com. Fine wine will be served courtesy of the highly-acclaimed Hollywood Classic vineyard and hors d’oeuvres by Chef Keven Lee of My World On A Plate.
